CHILD/ADULT ABUSE RECORD SEARCH GUIDELINES

Refer to Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 43.43.830-43.43.845 for complete information. Child/Adult Abuse Information Act background checks may be conducted by Washington State businesses, organizations, or individuals. Other states must conduct searches under the Criminal Records Privacy Act, RCW 10.97.

1. Searches can be conducted only on prospective employees, volunteers, or adoptive parents.

Background checks can be conducted on prospective employees, volunteers, or adoptive parents who will or may have unsupervised access to children under sixteen years of age, developmentally disabled persons, or vulnerable adults. The background check is for initial employment or engagement decisions only.

Background checks on current employees or volunteers should be done through the Criminal Records Privacy Act, RCW 10.97

2. Applicants must be notified an inquiry may be made.

A business or organization shall not make an inquiry to the Washington State Patrol unless the business or organization has notified the applicant, who may be offered a position as an employee or volunteer that an inquiry may be made.

3. A business or organization must prepare a disclosure statement to be signed by the applicant before a background check may be conducted.

A business or organization shall require each applicant to disclose whether the applicant has been:

- (a) convicted of any crime;
- (b) had findings made against him or her in any civil adjudicative proceeding;
- (c) has both a conviction and findings made against him or her.

4. Applicants must be notified of the response.

The requesting agency shall notify the applicant of the Washington State Patrol's response within ten days after receipt. The employer shall provide a copy of the response to the applicant and shall notify the applicant of such availability.

NOTE: The requested record information is furnished solely on the basis of name and/or description similarity with the subject of your inquiry. Positive identification or non-identification can only be effected upon receipt of fingerprints.
